Major Car Burglar Arrested

On February 3, 2005 detectives with the Prue Rd. Substation Property Crimes Section and Agents with the ATF arrested the below listed suspect for a charge of being in possession of stolen weapons. This arrest is the first of many charges that will be filed against the suspect in the near future.

It is believed that the listed suspect is responsible for over 45 cases of burglary of homes and vehicles. All of the cases are believed to have occurred in the latter portion of 2004 and early 2005. The majority of the burglary of vehicle cases occurred in multiple health fitness club locations. Attached are photos of stolen weapons and property, which were recovered from a search warrant executed at the suspect's home, 8816 Connemara, Fair Oaks Ranch., Tx. This suspect committed most of the offenses in San Antonio, but it's also known that he committed several offenses within other jurisdictions in Bexar County.

Detectives are currently in the process of getting the recovered property back to the rightful owners. All of the criminal cases will ultimately be turned over to the District Attorney's Office for prosecution.
